FAMILY RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Your family has rights and responsibilities under the HFWA program. In particular, as a member of HFWA, your child or youth's rights are very important. Family care coordinators must explain your child's rights at the first visit.

Youth Name	Date
Your rights As an enrollee in the program, your child or youth has the right to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be treated with respect, dignity and privacy. • Be treated fairly, whatever his/her: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, ethnic background and disability. • Have your child's treatment and other information kept private. The only time we may share treatment records is when required. (The Confidentiality section in the family and youth handbook provides more details). • Have access to care. • Learn about treatment in a way that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Respects your culture, you can understand and fits your needs. • Take part in making your child's plan of care. • Get information in a language your family can understand. Also, get things translated for free. • Get information in other ways if you ask for it. • Get information about Magellan and its: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Providers, programs and services. ○ Role in the treatment process. • Be informed about the clinical rules followed in your child's care. • Ask providers and others on the child and family team (CFT) about their work history and training. • Not to be forced to do something you're not comfortable with (this is based on a federal law). • Give your thoughts on the Rights and Responsibilities policy. • Ask for a specific certified provider in our network. • Have your child's team make decisions based on your youths' needs. • Get healthcare services that obey Wyoming and federal laws. • Help make decisions about your youth's healthcare. This includes the right: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ To get a second medical opinion. ○ To say no to treatment. This is your right unless the court says otherwise. • File a complaint or grievance about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Magellan, a HFWA provider or the care your youth receives. • File an appeal about a Magellan action or decision. • Get a copy of your youth's records. You can ask that they be changed or corrected. • Use your rights. This will not affect the way Magellan and its providers treat you. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Talk with your child and family team about what strategies are right for your child. • Ask for information in a way that you can get to it easily. This applies if you have a visual, hearing or physical disability. This will help you know about the benefits and services you can get. • Receive training on my rights, and understand the process for instances of abuse, neglect, and exploitation. Your responsibilities As the parent or guardian of a child or youth, you have the responsibility to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fully participate with the FCC and team in developing and carrying out your Plan of Care (POC). • Ensure Medicaid benefits are current. • Ensure safety of your child and anyone providing care in your home Give Magellan the information they need. This helps support quality care and getting the right services. • Ask questions about your child's care. This helps everyone understand your child's condition. It helps create goals and plans you agree on. • Follow your child's Plan of Care. This plan is agreed upon by the whole team and it is the responsibility of everyone to make sure it is completed. If you encounter barriers, you can contact your family care coordinator. • Attend all team meetings. You should call the family care coordinator as soon as you know you need to reschedule a meeting. • Tell the child and family team if the plan of care does not seem to be working. • Complete and help your child complete a survey from Magellan about your experience in our program. This will be asked of you after you've been enrolled in HFWA for 6 months. You will get a call from Magellan's Family Support Specialist to complete this at your convenience, but must be done. • Share worries about the quality of your child's care. • Tell someone if you suspect abuse or fraud. (This is someone not being honest.) If you suspect abuse or fraud, call Magellan's Corporate Compliance Hotline. You can reach this number 24 hours a day, seven days a week. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This hotline is run by an outside company. • You do not have to give your name when you call. • You can also send an email. • Magellan will look into all calls and emails. The calls and emails will stay private.
